SERVICE & ORDERING

OUR STYLE

We'll take your order right at your table, and our chefs will cook up each dish fresh just for you! We'll bring out your dishes as soon as they're ready, so your party's meals might arrive at slightly different times—but we think the freshness is totally worth it. We don't do fast food—we serve freshly cooked food as fast as we can!

ALLERGIES & INGREDIENTS

While we try our absolute best to list all ingredients, we can't guarantee there are no traces of allergens. We use nuts, dairy, eggs, seafood (fish, molluscs & crustaceans), sesame seeds, soya, and celery in our kitchen. With our lively wok stir-frying, there's a chance ingredients might mingle between woks. If you have severe allergies or dietary restrictions, we want you to make the choice that's best for you, as we can't guarantee an absence of allergens. All diners eat at their own discretion, and we can't accept responsibility if any traces sneak into your food. Also, soy sauce contains traces of gluten.

We cook real, fresh food—so please note that some meat and poultry dishes may contain bones. Our roast duck is authentically prepared; duck is naturally fatty, and this can vary depending on the time of year.

PLANT BASED VEGAN FRIENDLY

At Noodle Nation, we're delighted to serve our vegan guests! Many of our dishes are brimming with fresh, vegan-friendly ingredients we think you'll adore. While our kitchen also cooks up meat dishes, our woks get a good scrub between uses, so your stir-fries stay just the way you like them. Do keep in mind that our deep-fried goodies share the same oil as meat products. We'll leave it up to you to decide if you'd like to crunch on those treats!
